A reader reports that her favorite story is about a fly who loved bologna. It seems that this fly found a piece of bologna in a kitchen and started to eat it. He soon got very full, but he loved bologna so much that he kept on eating. Pretty soon he was too full to fly so he climbed up a broom handle. When he tried to fly away, he was so stuffed that he fell to the floor and was killed.
Moral: Don't fly off the handle when you are full of bologna.
